Yearbook comments offer little until enough time has passed for the comments to age like a good wine. Suddenly ten years later these words of wisdom will have the same effect as a good glass of aged wine. So what has this to do with my comments?

Your effect and presence within my view is as precious as that famed water made wine. There can never be another you. There can never be another man to offer this school all that you have. This is not the place for personal praise... that has already been said. Your qualities of leadership and dedication shall act as an example for years to come... \ \ \ \ \

Varsity Soccer

The fast and agile Varsity Soccer Team finished with a record of five wins, five losses, and one tie for the season. Despite the poor weather conditions this fall, the team displayed great spirit, as well as the determination to win. Coach Roland Augustine had this to say about the team, "There was a vast improvement over last year's team due to the fact that we had many returning players. Overall, we worked diligently, establishing a disciplined team with a greater passing and trapping ability." The fullback's defensive barrier provided the team with exceptional strength. Yet all the team members should be congratulated for a well played season.

J.V. Soccer

This year under the supervision of Andy Mastronardi, JV Soccer scored a fantastic record of six wins, two ties, and no losses. When asked about the team, Coach Mastronardi said: "I feel that the JV Soccer team had good spirit, and good players who got along well. The defense was the team's strongest point, and I would say that if there was a UCAL title for JV Soccer, Coleman would definitely have taken it."

This year's team had an excellent line up, yet the most outstanding players were Art Anderson (fullback) Willy Cannon (halfback), Bill Cote (fullback), and Dave Charmello (goalie). However, all the members of the team should be congratulated for a job well done.

Cross Country

The John A. Coleman Cross Country team repeated as champions of Division 1 with a 5-0 record. This marked the fourth consecutive season that the Statesmen were undefeated in dual meet competition.

The fourth place finish in the UCAL championship meet at Ashokan, combined with the results of the dual meets, tied Coleman with Redhook for third place in the overall league standings.

Armand Benincasa, Jim Farrell, Damien Prendergast, and Elaine Cannon were medal winners. While Betty Ann Jerkowski won the Girls' Race.

All in all the Cross Country team had a great season.

Field Hockey

The girl Field Hockey Team finished fifth in the league with five wins and five losses, just missing the Sectionals.

The most outstanding players on the team were Catherine Blum, the center forward, who scored the most goals for the team; and Janet Knott, center halfback, who put up a good defense for the forward line. The goalie, Beth Hooker, played a good season with two shut-out games and numerous saves.

Volleyball

Under the supervision of Coach D. Getty, Coleman produced two fighting Volleyball teams. The J.V. team finished with a record of 9-9. Miss Getty was quoted as saying, "The team has a promising future."

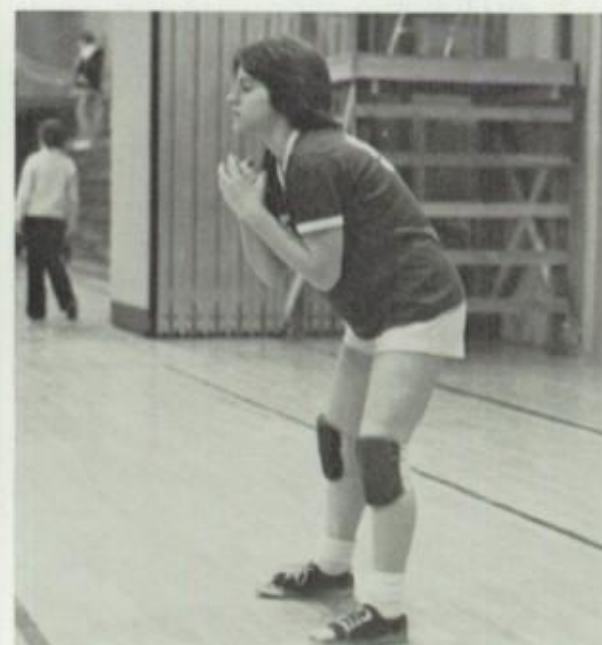

At the end of the season the season the Varsity team finished with a record of 6-9. They placed sixth out of 10 in their league. The teams outstanding players were Catherine Blum and Janet Knott. Miss Getty added, "The Varsity Volleyball team just missed making the sectionals. We're looking forward to next year."

Varsity Basketball

The Coleman Varsity Basketball Team started its season with high hopes and a positive attitude. After a successful game against Redhook the next three games were a disappointment to the team and Coach Vincent Bitonte. The following three games displayed the teams good spirit and skillful performance. The Rondout game however, dampened the teams spirit. Coach Bitonte said the best games included the last half of the Highland game and all of the Fallsburg game. In conclusion Coach Bitonte said: "The overall team season and effort coincided--we had our ups and our downs. When they were good they were very very good, and when they were bad they were . . ."

J.V. Basketball

"There has never been a ball club assembled like this before." Coach Seche made this statement when questioned about his teams performance this year. The J.V. team is made up of consistent players who all get along well together. Team work and spirit are among the high qualities of the J.V.'s. The outlook for the future is promising. Seche was quoted as saying, "I wish there were more games now, because we're just starting to get good."

Freshmen Basketball

The Freshmen Basketball Team ran into a lot of trouble with their opponents this year. They didn't have enough practice and weren't ready at the beginning of the season. Towards the middle of the year, the team began to play a more unified game. Throughout the season, the best all-around player was John Engel. The two players with the most improved performance were Pete McCutcheon and Robert McDonough. The team's record with 3 games left in their season was 2 wins and 4 losses.

Varsity Basketball

Boasting a 13-1 record and first place in the National Division, last year's Girls Basketball Team earned the respect of its opponents in the UCAL. This year, that respect is still well deserved as four of last year's starting players have returned. Captain Janet Knott leads the experienced group at center, and share rebounding duties with Kathy Mahoney. Kathy Turck and Catherine Blum return as guards. In addition to these four, the other players on the team are very talented, and contribute greatly to firm a strong unit. At the time of the Yearbook interview, Miss Getty, the team's Coach, was quoted as saying, "The team is favored to do at least as well as last year."

Coleman Chorus had a successful year, starting with a joint presentation with the Kingston High School Chorus. Directed by Miss Cicale and KHS director Mr. Steeves, both choruses participated in the dedication of the YMCA's new gymnasium.

Though pressured by limited time, a well planned and highly popularized Christmas concert was assembled under the title CHRISTMAS AROUND THE WORLD. On Dec. 19, the spirit of Christmas was enlightened by carols from Poland, Germany, the Alps, Canada, England, France, and America.

A Spring concert entitled AMERICAN MUSIC was planned for May 22, which proved to be a moving experience.

Ski Club

The Coleman Ski Club got off to another great start this year. There were many trips planned for December through March. Some places that the club visited were Bellayre, Highland, and Plattekill. This year's activities included a three day trip to Mount Snow, Vermont. That was the highlight of the year for those that went.

Ski Club membership was open to anyone who had the slightest interest in skiing. Brother Henry was the faculty advisor, and was assisted by Brother Thomas, Mr. Safford, and Mrs. Marallo.

E. Gelsleichter, J. Charnello, Bro. H. Sawicki.

Practicum

Practicum is a Senior religion elective, under the direction of Br. Thomas. It is a service project for our community, which basically involves helping others. On three mornings each week throughout the school year, students went to several different places to volunteer their services. These included: St. Joseph's school, Benedictine hospital, Immaculate Conception, Children's Rehabilitation Center, & the Assoc. for Retarded Children.

For many years, the Key Club has been existing in Coleman High School. Yet many people still have no idea what the Key Club does. Under the supervision of Mr. Robert Carroll, the Key Club's main objective is to help the community. As President Chuck McCullough puts it, "The Key Club's main point is to make things happen in the community. Then, hopefully, positive things will react from our services." He also added, "Key Club also tries to make its members better citizens." Other officers are Brian Gerlack, Vice-President; Mary O'Connell, Secretary; Sue Dittmar, Treasurer.

Officers: B. Gerlack, C. McCullough, S. Dittmar, M. O'Connell. Advisor: Mr. R. Carroll.

C. V. A.

Coleman Volunteers for the Aged is a club concerned with the elderly in our community. It's members visit the patients at Hadler's and the Infirmary on Saturdays and Sundays. The group has mass, parties for special occasions, or else they play games and just talk to the people. They often bring presents and baked goods to the patients. The students who belong to C.V.A. use some of their free time to make a few lonely people happy.

When asked about the Mission Club, Sr. Elizabeth Anne said: "The Mission Club's main function is to collect clothing, food and money for the needy in our own Kingston Community. Each year a certain amount of money is sent to the Propagation of the Faith of the Archdiocese of New York. During the past year, we have been making a special effort to help support the work of the Redemptorist Fathers at THE PEOPLE'S PLACE."

As in years before, every week in the mission collection the students have expressed great generosity through their donations.

Children's Theater

Do you know where you are? Do you know who you are? Elaine Cannon as Alice found herself asking this question quite often during the Childrens Theater production, "Alice in Wonderland".

This magical fantasy proved to be as wonderful as its name. Many children were delighted as Alice traveled through the land of make believe, talking to animals, going to "mad Tea Parties", and playing a unique game of croquet with the Queen of Hearts and her court.

What are the major factors in producing a successful play? The director, officers, and cast agree on two things: spirit and cooperation.

Director Gerard Gretzinger was quoted as saying, "The cooperation is just as good as any other year! The spirit of Childrens Theater every year is fantastic. At the beginning of the year, no one knows one another, but at the end of Childrens Theater we're all close friends." He also added, "Childrens Theater is the most beautiful thing that I've ever experienced at Coleman. The feeling of friendship and love is enough in itself to make it a success."

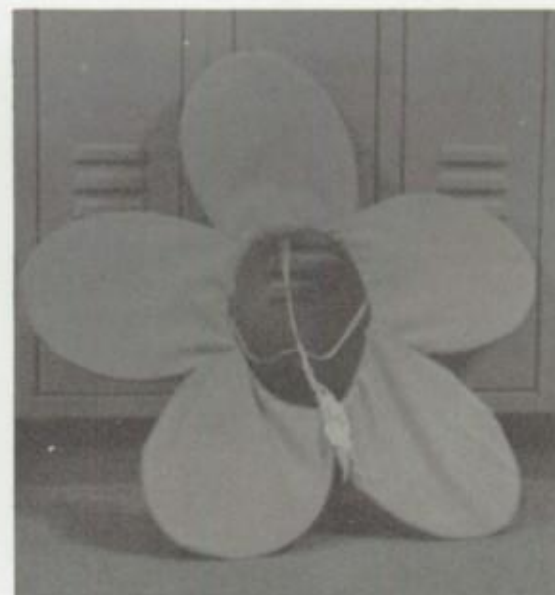

When asked what he thought of this year's production, Producer Bernie Gray had this to say, "I'm very optimistic. It will be moving, and a good experience for not only the staff and cast, but also the school and audience. I thank the cast, crew, and director for making my year as Producer enjoyable, and the experience of a lifetime."

President of Childrens Theater, Carmello Tornatore, had this to say of the production, "The play is fantastic! We've received total cooperation! "Alice in Wonderland" will appeal to everyone. It has humor, color, great music, and terrific choreography."

This year's Childrens Theater officers include, Carmello Tornatore, President; Judy Milne, Vice President; Jean Kren, Secretary-Treasurer.

With a wonderful cast and the fantastic officers, Childrens Theater has once again become an outstanding success.

Art Club under the guidance of Mr. Brundage met once a week. Membership was opened to anyone interested in art. Each week they experimented with a new form of art. Ceramics, printmaking, and photography were a few of the arts that the members tried. During the year the club went on several field trips.

SR.- FACULTY KICKBALL GAME

Yes, the idea seemed a bit crazy and yes, people thought they were a bit crazy too, but more importantly yes, the Senior-Faculty kickball game was a success. A success in the true sense of the word. Those participating enjoyed it, even the faculty, who incidentally, LOST. The Seniors came out to show just what great spirit they have.

The day began with a Mass, followed by coffee and donuts. The Seniors were outside first and anxiously awaited the faculty's arrival. Had they chickened out?!? They soon appeared dressed to play, with their mascot--a pet rock. Their coach, Sr. Alice, who looked quite stunning in her red stocking hat, led warm-ups on the field.

The game was soon underway. The faculty had many well-conceived plans, but when the Seniors united, their strategy was crushed. The faculty had also planned a halftime show but it was overcome by the roudy rallying Seniors. The final score was: Seniors--285 Faculty--284.5

After the game McDonald's was bombarded for lunch, following which, everyone headed for home and victory parties.

DECORATING THE CHRISTMAS TREE

On Sunday, December 12th, many members of the Senior class gathered at school to decorate our Christmas Tree. The day began about noon.

Mr. Voerg and most of the guys worked hard to get the tree in its stand and up straight while the girls untangled and tested the many strings of lights (many of which blew up in their hands).

The lights went on first. Once they were on we thought the worst was over. We didn't expect the tub of water that the tree was standing in to crack. Really now, would you?? Everything had to come down so we could get a different tub and mop up the stage. We all formed two lines and braced ourselves so we could catch the tree when it came our way. It was very strange to see a Christmas Tree suspended in mid-air with nearly 30 pair of legs protruding from underneath it.

Finally the tree was back in its place. A few branches were broken and some lights had fallen out of place, BUT, it was standing again. The lights were adjusted and we began to hang our wide variety of decorations. We had everything from bells, bottles (Michelob) to cartons (Heineken), along with candy canes, stockings, and tinsel.

At last the masterpiece was completed, even though a few of our choice decoration had disappeared. Even the lights worked!

Now it was time to settle down to something of paramount importance and great nutritional value . . . PIZZA! After dinner we blessed the Rolling Meadows area with our wonderful voices and musical talent. Our repertoire of carols included Jingle Bells, Silent Night, Joy to the World, We Wish You A Merry Christmas, and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer.

When we had finished caroling, we returned to school for a mass followed by coffee and donuts. However, there was one slight problem, when we got back to school, only half of the tree would light.

Maybe we should just start ALL over again . . . ?

BAKE SALE JUNKIE

As I look back, I shudder at the insane things I did. Yet I still ask myself the questions, "Was that really me?" or "What strange mystique possessed me to do such things?" True, I still gasp at the me that once was, but now I can hold my head high. I've licked my problem . . . I've kicked the habit. I was a bake sale junkie. Yes, you laugh, but to me it was a serious problem. I remember how it all started . . .

Coming to Coleman was very traumatic for me. Here I was, fresh out of grammar school; a green kid starting out. I recall walking down the long corridors, wondering what Mom had packed for lunch. When I'd reach the lunchroom I'd hungrily open the brown paper bag and see what goodies I had gotten for the day. Soon, my excitement turned to boredom and disgust. A bologna sandwich, carrot sticks and an apple. Yech! As I reluctantly bit into a carrot my eyes wandered around the cafeteria. Suddenly, something caught the corner of my eye. In a small, inconspicuous corner of the cafeteria stood a table lined with cakes, cookies, brownies, and other assorted goodies. Yes, I thought to myself, this was my answer. I dug into my pocket and found three pennies, a quarter and a dime. I dropped my carrot stick and hurried to the haven for those in the last lunch period.

At the table sat two girls, chatting dully about some math test. When they saw me their boredom turned to delight. "Support your cheerleaders!!" one cute pixie squealed, "We have lots of delicious things!" The choice was hard, but after some scrutiny I chose three chocolate chip cookies, one cupcake, and half a brownie (it had broken and was half price). I went back to my table, and sat down and began to devour the delicate morsels. Little was I to know that this was only the beginning.

Each lunch period I'd look around the cafeteria, hoping that some worthwhile cause was having a bake sale. Thank God for cheerleading and Yearbook. Yes, these organizations kept me going through Freshman year. Who would think that these two mild-mannered clubs kept my dollar habit satisfied. As I look back, I fondly remember the fun of choosing, and wondering which delicacy was the best. I couldn't wait till Coleman's clubs ran out of money. When this occurred, a bake sale was soon to come.

However, as Sophomore year approached I began to realize my problem. When the first bake sale came up my best friend said something that I was supposed to take as a hint. "More money for bake sales?" she asked, you already owe me five dollars from last year. You're too much!" Even my sister said, "Another bake sale? Don't you think enough is enough?" Finally, I set myself straight. I vowed that I would never touch one little morsel from the bake sale table again. My friends would watch me as I hurriedly passed a bake sale. They smiled and encouraged me greatly as I modestly repeated "It was nothing." Soon, I had kicked the habit. Now as my little cluster of friends pass a bake sale I laugh heartily about chocolate cupcakes, oatmeal cookies, and days gone by. As I think about how silly I was in the past, my friends get on the lunch line. Yet, sometimes I have to bite my lip and hold my breath as I pass those delectable little goodies

THE HALLOWEEN HAPPENING

On October 29th, the goblins and ghouls of the Senior class broke loose during the first two periods of the day to celebrate Halloween. Talent was discovered in some class members that no one ever realized existed.

The event proved to be fun for those who participated. It was a break from the continuous monotony of a normal Friday schedule.

The events and their winners are as follows:

Musical Chairs--
Jane Kuschner (H.R. 1)

Apple-on-a-String--
Joe Augustine (H.R. 16)

Bubblegum Blowing Contest--
Mike Kandl (H.R. 16)

Marx Brothers Contest--
Carlo Tornatore (H.R. T.R.)
Brian O'Neil (H.R. T.R.)
Paul O'Connor (H.R. T.R.)
Tim Quilty (H.R. T.R.)

The Seniors certainly appeared to be reliving their childhood memories this Halloween, as bubblegum snapped and feet raced to be first before the music stopped. Fun-loving faculty members also seemed to enjoy the nostalgia of it all

SR.-FACULTY BASKETBALL

On Wednesday, December 1, The Annual Senior-Faculty "Lick 'Em" Basketball game was held in the Coleman gym.

They tried awfully hard but it just didn't work out. The girls had a terrific team and no one could have been more ready and willing to play but somehow, everything went wrong. Maybe it was because they didn't realize that they were only going to play two quarters until the first was over. And although the competition could have been a factor, it was predetermined that it was not. With such great names as Kathy Turck, Pat Schatzel, Mary Mahoney, and many, many more, all behind the fantastic coaching job of Janet Knott, you're winners, even if you lose.

The faculty team was led by Marion Moose, Susan Swift, Onnie-All-Star, Elizabeth Elusive, Catherine-the-Great, Debby Daring, and Lucy Lightening.

The final score was; Faculty: 13, Seniors; 8.

Starring scorers on the boys' team were: Mark Berardi, Shayne Gallo, Joe Charmello, Damien Prendergast, Noel Sickler, and Bill Robertson, manager.

The Faculty's starters included Mr. Synan, Mr. Voerg, Mr. Spada, Mr. Mastronardi, Mr. Bitonte, Mr. Sechel, and Mr. Safford.

The game began with high prospects for a first win in the Seniors' favor, but as the game wore on this probability reduced constantly. The faculty triumphed with the final score of 61-55.

Better luck to the Class of '78!!

COLEMAN'S 1976 GOLF SEASON

The Coleman Golf team triumphed in the UCAL in the 1976 season. The statesman compiled a record of 14 wins against 2 losses. Their difficulties arose only in matches against Ellenville and New Paltz.

The team was led by Brian Croswell, Mike Murphy, Howard Shambo, Bryan Smith, Tom Palmer, and Jim Sumislaski. Four of the six starters returned this year. The team's coach was Mr. Joe Mannello. It was his first year as coach, and proved to be a good one for him.

We, the staff of "Spirit '77" would like to express our appreciation to Mr. Coleman by dedicating our yearbook to him. We hope the Christian spirit to which he and the school are dedicated endures in our hearts forever. His generosity and concern have been felt by students, parents, faculty and we hope . . . the world. Although, few of us ever met Mr. Coleman, his presence has always been felt and we hope that it always will be.

JOHN A. COLEMAN

"Look my eyes are dry, the girl + was 't's a girl + was knew 't's a girl + was we always it was a most beautiful and memorable moment, that will shine forever in my heart, and memorable most beautiful and memorable will last with me forever. I can never tell you how much your being there has helped me, and how often you smile at me but I will never be as open as it was during the play but I have always been and saw the real man you always last. I feel that I have always been and saw the real man you are, and that is what I will always be. I have always been and saw the real man you you give, and only for you all the time of love. I have always been and saw the real man you and be free from pain. Thank you for the experience of knowing you you and most of all the love and luck I have to give.
 All the love and luck I have to give.
 I love you,

A brand new day
 is ahead of you.

I would really like to see you over the

FINIS!

Carmelo,

I think that you have got to be the hardest person to write to in a yearbook.
I don't know where or how to begin. We've gone through a whole four years together. I feel like I've gotten to know you really good but I wish I could get to know you even more. You are such a beautiful person. I truly love you. Most people find that hard to say to someone but with you it is so sincere that it is easy. I want to thank you for being our Charlie Gordon. I've never seen each one of us something and real will act on a stage. You carry with us through that we will haunt us, but in a beautiful way. There have "Charley Gordon will haunt us" said that.
It will haunt us times when you have helped me. You been so many times realize it a lot of times I still probably didn't even realize it. It helps me so much to read go to psalm 13 a lot. Thanks. Well our senior year is it and think about it. I hope there will be more fun times over over but I hope during college. I'll be coming home once the summer & maybe we can all get together. I'm going to in a while. I wish you all the luck and miss you so much. I wish you all the luck and success and keep you sense of humor and your laugh.
You made me cheer up so many times when I was down. You laughter cracks me up. Be good.
Behave yourself. "All I ask of you is to always remember me as loving you". If ever you want someone to talk to or we just to listen to you I'll always be there. Keep in touch. I can a lot this summer before we leave to go on to college. I was thinking of your address for college so I can write to you today. I was thinking of you yesterday. I'll be thinking of you tomorrow. Be happy Love ya!

Colleen.
P.S. If you need a nurse anytime you can come to me maybe 2 years from now.

Carlo,
I'll never forget your great "command performance" in the Senior Play. Best of luck, don't forget to stop by at 41 Lafayette & see me once in a while.
Love always
Smith
